14 days to go for Lok Sabha polls

Vigilance intensified at entry, exit points in Mysuru

Central Forces to join local Police soon: City Top Cop Ramesh

Mysuru, Apr. 12 (MTY&BCT)- With just 14 days remaining until the first phase of Lok Sabha election in Karnataka on Apr. 26, the Election Commission and its enforcement agencies, including the Police, Excise and Revenue Departments, have intensified vigilance at inter-state borders and the borders of Assembly constituencies in Mysuru to curb the illegal transport of unaccounted cash, liquor, freebies and gold.

City Police Commissioner Ramesh Banoth told Star of Mysore this morning that the situation is being monitored through a special control room established at DC Office on Bannur Road to prevent any untoward incidents. The vehicle checks are in full swing at all check posts and as the election date approaches, monitoring efforts will be further enhanced.

The Commissioner stated that the Central Forces will arrive in Mysuru gradually after the completion of polls in other locations. "All the Central forces have been assigned, and they are currently monitoring the election proceedings in other areas. They will be deployed in Mysuru as the poll date approaches, stationed at key junctions and areas," he explained. Moreover, various entities such as Model Code of Conduct (MCC) Cell, District Grievance and Complaints Redressal Cell, Election Expenditure Monitoring Cell and Media Certification and Monitoring Committee have been established to ensure the strict enforcement of poll code.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

BETTER EARLY THAN LATE: It is a failing we are all guilty of — we are running a few minutes behind time for an important appointment. Indeed, this fact has led to the whimsical explanation of 'Indian Standard Time' into 'Indian Stretchable Time'! Whether we are off to work, the airport or even to a picnic, we wait until the last possible minute to leave, thus running a little late.

This creates a lot of stress all around. We cannot help worrying about who is waiting for us, how far we are behind schedule and how things will work out for us, not to forget that we are inconveniencing others by keeping them waiting.

It is a common problem but one that can be solved easily by simply giving oneself an extra ten minutes to get ready. All you have to do is to make up your mind that you will be ten minutes early instead of ten minutes late.

The remedy of course is to start getting ready a little earlier than usual and not allowing yourself into doing something else. It is easy to believe that taking extra time for jobs is insignificant.

Not so, because it can make all the difference between a stressful day and a joyful day. A friend I know makes it a point to be in good time for all activities.

Recently she left very early for a train she had to catch. She told me later that this had served her very well. It took her a long time to get an auto, for just within five minutes of her arrival at the station, her train came in.

There is a special satisfaction and joy when you are not running late. It will enable you to enjoy whatever you are engaged in rather than rush through the different things you are called upon to do each day. You will find the time to put things together and be prepared for any eventuality. Besides, even simple, ordinary events will turn into fun when there is no frantic hurry. Instead of unrelenting pressure, one will experience a great sense of peace.

When you have finished one activity, begin the next one a little earlier. Your life will seem much more relaxed and, what is more, it will make a much more pleasant and reliable person of you. — Leela Ramaswamy in Deccan Herald

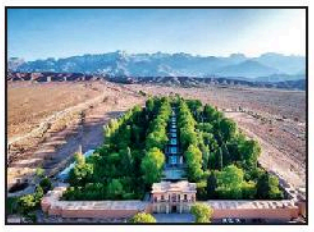
A green oasis in the middle of a desert



Mahan: Iran's Shazdeh Garden, also known as the Prince's Garden, is a surprisingly lush garden full of greenery and water fountains surrounded by arid desert.

Located 6 kilometres from the city of Mahan, in Kerman Province, Shazdeh Garden is a historical Persian garden built by the Qajar Dynasty, at the end of the 19th century. The rectangular complex is surrounded by stone walls that shield the green paradise inside from the harsh desert surrounding it. Seen from the air, Shazdeh Garden looks like a welcoming oasis in the middle of an arid sea, and it's photos like the ones below that attract thousands of people to this place every year. It features five impressive water fountains supplied through the Qanat technique of transporting water from a well through an underground aqueduct.

Man fakes death to avoid paying child support

Kentucky: A man is facing several years behind bars for illegally accessing the online death registry system and faking his own death to avoid having to pay over 1,00,000 dollars in child support to his ex-partner.

39-year-old Jesse Kipf of Kentucky, admitted to accessing the death registry system in Hawaii using login details he had stolen from a doctor in the same state in January of last year. According to investigators, he created and assigned a file to himself in the system and impersonated the doctor to certify that he had died. Court documents show that Kipf also admitted to illegally accessing various websites run by the States of Arizona and Vermont, along with GuestTek Interactive Entertainment and Milestone, Inc., which led to him being listed as dead in several databases. In a plea agreement, the man claimed that he committed these crimes, in part, to avoid paying outstanding child support to his former wife.

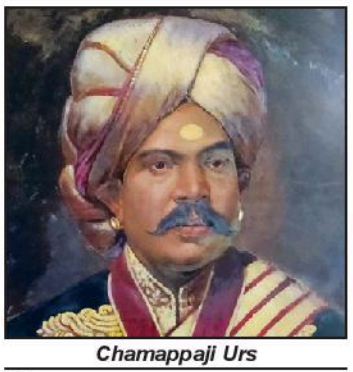
A road on which the King rode on horse-back: A Clarification



Chamappaji Urs

Sir,

Apropos to my article titled "A road on which the King rode on horse-back" in the series, 'Mysuru, a look at its past' (SOM dated Apr. 4, 2024), Anil Urs of Bengaluru and Ajeya Urs of Mysuru have brought certain facts to my knowledge, which put the story on correct perspective. I thank both of them.

According to them, the photo (see pic. above) accompanying my article is not that of Chamappaji Urs but his son, Basappaji Urs.

Bakshi Arepur Chamappaji Urs was the guardian of Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar from 1799, till the Maharaja attained 18 years of age.

During the grooming period of Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, (that is, from 1799 till Maharaja attained 18 years) for want of privacy, both the guardian (Bakshi Arepur Chamappaji Urs) and the young Maharaja (Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar) used to frequent Chamundi Hill on horse-back via the route called bridle path to reach the hilltop as there was no motorable road to Chamundi Hill then.

After Mummadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar's death, Bakshi Arepur Basappaji Urs became the guardian to the Maharaja Chamaraja Wadiyar X. Basappaji had married Chamaraja Wadiyar's only sister Jayalakshamanni.

They too used to frequent this road to reach the hilltop. In memory of his favourite uncle and for the services rendered, Maharaja Chamaraja Wadiyar named it "Bakshi Chamappaji Road."

It was on one such occasion, renowned composer, Mysore Vasudevacharya met Chamaraja Wadiyar and got his support to learn music.

Wild elephant escapes from slush, damages properties

Kushalnagar, Apr. 12- A wild elephant escaped from the slush on its own, but only to damage ginger crop and a two-wheeler in panic, at Chikkabettageri near Kushalnagar.

On Wednesday, the wild elephant, aged about 16 years, ventured into the agricultural land belonging to Ashok in search of food and water and created a havoc. It later fell into the pit, in which a borewell was sunk.

Soon, Forest Department officials and staff, who reached the spot, tried to drive the wild elephant back into the forest during which it entered a trench filled with slush and was trapped in it.

The Forest personnel later summoned an earth excavating machine and tried to haul the elephant from the trench but in vain. After a three hour-long operation, the wild elephant slowly moved forward on its own, got out of the trench and ran into a farm, where it trampled ginger crop of one Lalu and damaged a two-wheeler of one Nadan.

Villagers alleged that it was the same elephant which had destroyed crops in Balugodu Bettageri limits.

Congress taking people for a ride in 'Guarantees' name: B.Y. Vijayendra

Mysuru, Apr. 12 (MK&BS)- State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra said "The development of State and nation is not possible by Congress that has been doling out Guarantee Schemes in one hand and snatching from another hand, taking the people for a ride."

He was addressing the party leaders and voters during a public meeting organised at Agrahara Circle in the city on Thursday evening.

"While the women are offered a free bus ride, the ticket fare has been hiked by 30 to 40 percent forcing the men and children to shell more to travel in the bus. All types of student scholarships have been stalled, while one has to pay the fee three times more at sub-registrar offices. Likewise, the State Government is indulge in doling out in one hand and snatching from another," said Vijayendra, taking a dig at Congress party.

He also predicted that the alliance between BJP and JD(S) will open a new chapter in the State, with the former Prime Minister and JD(S) supremo H.D. Deve Gowda taking the call in the interest of country's future.

Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, BJP candidate for Mysuru-Kodagu Lok Sabha Constituency had no interest in politics, but was attracted towards the same after deriving inspiration from the leadership abilities of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

So, we have to ensure the victory of Yaduveer and strengthen the hands of Modi by getting more votes in every booths, said Vijayendra who predicted not less than two lakh victory margin for Yaduveer in the elections.

'Fear of losing polls triggering attacks on BJP workers'

Mysuru, Apr. 12 (SBD&DM)- Accusing the ruling Congress in the State of assaulting BJP workers out of fear of losing the Lok Sabha polls, State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra said that the Congress Government is getting frustrated with the voters' good response to the BJP as the poll date nears.

Addressing a press meet after inducting KPCC General Secretary Gurupadaswamy and his supporters to BJP at the party office in Chamarajapuram here yesterday, Vijayendra strongly condemned the attack on BJP workers in Bangalore Rural Constituency, which has become a high stakes battle between the Congress and the BJP.

Accusing the Congress of giving benefits on one hand and taking them back in the other, he said the BJP-JD(S) workers would not be cowed down by Congress party's attacks.

Responding to Deputy CM D.K. Shivakumar's allegation that former CM H.D. Kumaraswamy had resorted to phone-tapping of Adichunchanagiri Mutt Seer, Vijayendra said that Shivakumar has made this allegation out of frustration.

Noting that the people of the State are closely watching the statements of political leaders in the run up to the LS polls, he asserted that the BJP-JD(S) coalition would win the most number of seats in the State.

This Road in Chamarajanagar intersects with 4 Assembly segments

Chamarajanagar, Apr. 12 (SS&BCT)- While it is common for a road to border one or two Assembly Constituencies, there's a unique road in Chamarajanagar that intersects with four Assembly Constituencies in all its four directions.

The Heggawadi Cross Road, located in Chamarajanagar Taluk, intersects with the Bengaluru-Dindigul National Highway and traverses through four Assembly Constituencies in all directions.

Situated at the border of the Mysuru district, this road marks the transition into Chamarajanagar for travellers continuing ahead. Heading south leads to Nanjangud, while the Varuna Assembly Constituency lies to the left and the Gundlupet Assembly Constituency to the right.

Although Varuna and Nanjangud Constituencies are situated within Mysuru District, they are categorised under the Chamarajanagar Lok Sabha Constituency. Similarly, both the Chamarajanagar and Gundlupet Assembly segments fall under the purview of the Chamarajanagar Lok Sabha Constituency.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah holds the seat for the Varuna Constituency, while Darshan Dhruvanarayan, son of the late Chamarajanagar MP R. Dhruvararayan, represents the Nanjangud Assembly segment. Gundlupet is represented by MLA H.M. Ganesh Prasad, son of former MLA late H.S. Mahadevaprasad, while Chamarajanagar has chosen C. Puttarangashetty as its MLA.

Remarkably, all four Assembly segments are currently represented by the Congress MLAs. However, in 2019 elections, the Chamarajanagar Lok Sabha seat was secured by V. Sreenivasa Prasad, who contested on the BJP ticket.

Rameshwaram Cafe bomb blast case

Two suspects flaunting false identities caught in Kolkata

Bengaluru, Apr. 12 (Agencies)- In a significant development in the Rameshwaram Cafe blast case that occurred in Bengaluru on Mar. 1, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) has arrested two key suspects.

The arrested persons are Abdul Matheen Ahmed Taahaa, 30, the alleged chief conspirator and Mussavir Hussain Shazib, 30, the alleged bomber. They were apprehended in Kolkata this morning. NIA said the duo were traced to their hideout near Kolkata where they were staying under false identities.

The NIA, in a successful operation, traced the absconding accused hiding under false identities, with the cooperative efforts of Kerala, West Bengal, Telangana, and Karnataka Police teams.

"This pursuit, accomplished by NIA was ably supported by energetic coordinated action and co-operation between NIA, Central Intelligence Agencies and State Police agencies of West Bengal, Telangana, Karnataka and Kerala," the NIA said in a statement.

The arrests come days after the anti-terror agency in a bid to bolster its investigation into the case, widened its scope by delving into the social circles and past associations of the accused, including friends in school-time and college.

As part of its investigation process, the anti-terror agency had also intensified its efforts in the case by summoning and scrutinising some acquaintances, including college and school friends, of both absconding and arrested accused. NIA said that the individuals from various spheres of the suspects' lives were being called in for questioning to gather crucial evidence and information pertinent to the case.

The move was part of the agency's strategy to piece together the puzzle surrounding the alleged activities of the accused. With a focus on tracing the suspects' connections and possible motives, the NIA said, it left no stone unturned in its pursuit of justice.

From Thirthahalli in Shivamogga

The two accused are residents of the Thirthahalli in Shivamogga district. Further, as part of the investigation one Muzammil Shareef, a resident of Kalasa in Chikkamagaluru, who extended logistics support to the main accused persons, was arrested on Mar. 26 and was examined in Police custody.

As part of efforts to locate and arrest the absconding accused persons, the NIA had conducted searches on 18 locations in Karnataka, Tamil Nadu and Uttar Pradesh.

Earlier on Mar. 29, the NIA also declared rewards of Rs. 10 lakh on each of the two key absconders. According to sources, the officials earlier reportedly found out that Shazib and his associate Abdul Matheen Ahmed Taahaa had stayed in lodges at Triplicane in Chennai for nearly a month before he travelled to Bengaluru and detonated the bomb at the cafe.

The duo first came to the notice of the agencies in the Al Hind IS module case in 2020 in Bengaluru. Mehboob Pasha, who ran the Al Hind Trust in Suddaguntepalya in Bengaluru and Khaja Moideen of Cuddalore, Tamil Nadu, had put together an Islamic State-inspired terror module.

They were in the advanced stages of setting up camps in the forests of south India from where they wanted to launch an IS-style insurgency. Taahaa and Shazib evaded arrest and went underground.

Vigilance intensified at entry, exit points in Mysuru

District, Assembly segment checkpoints

Several regular district check-posts and checkpoints have been established at the borders of Assembly constituencies, along with inter-state check-posts at locations bordering Tamil Nadu and Kerala. During inspections, any suspicion triggers thorough examinations, with necessary actions promptly taken against any detected illegal activities. Higher officials are promptly informed to ensure appropriate follow-up measures.

As the poll dates draw closer, there is a notable influx of VVIPs, including the Prime Minister, State heads, and national-level leaders. Ramesh emphasised that security measures have been bolstered across the district and within the heart of the city to avert any untoward incidents.

This apart, posts have been set up near Manipal Hospital Junction on the Mysuru-Bengaluru Highway, Mahadevapura Road near Sathagalli Junction, Bhughathagalli on Bannur Road, Chikkalli on T. Narasipur Road, near APMC on Nanjangud Road, near Ring Road Junction on H.D. Kote Road, Old Bogadi Road, near Hinkal on Hunsur Road, and near the Ring Road on the KRS Road.

Visuals relayed for monitoring

All vehicles undergo rigorous checking at each check-post, with a team of over eight to 10 personnel from the Police, Excise, and Revenue Departments stationed at each location. Every inspection at the posts is recorded on video, and the footage is transmitted to the Video Viewing Team at the DC Office. This measure was implemented following complaints of inconsistencies between the recovered cash and the reported amounts released.

Both Central and State Government enforcement agencies are vigilant in monitoring all activities. In addition to this, entities such as Income Tax, Enforcement Directorate, Customs, Directorate of Revenue Intelligence, Narcotics Bureau, and Excise are actively involved in this effort.

They are closely monitoring the flow of money, drugs, and liquor, identifying key players, and tracking storage locations. Close surveillance is being maintained on all activities, with thorough vehicle checks conducted to detect any movement of cash, drugs, or liquor from neighbouring States.

Helipads kept ready for PM

The SPG personnel, who have been camping in the city since yesterday to prepare for the Prime Minister's hassle-free visit, conducted several inspections this morning at various locations.

On Apr. 13 (tomorrow), a day before the PM's arrival, rehearsals for the cavalcade movement will be conducted under the supervision of the SPG-National Security Guards.

This will be in preparation for the possibility of the PM travelling by road from Mysore Airport to the Maharaja's College Grounds. However, whether he will opt for the road or take a chopper directly from the Airport to the Maharaja's College Grounds remains unclear at this time.

Tomorrow, a team from the IAF will visit the Oval Grounds. According to sources, this team includes an anti-sabotage unit consisting of a bomb squad and metal-detecting experts. Their task is to sanitise the area where the PM will visit and take charge of the venue. The dog squad and bomb squad will support this team. They will inspect the main route, alternative routes, and other options for the PM's cavalcade.

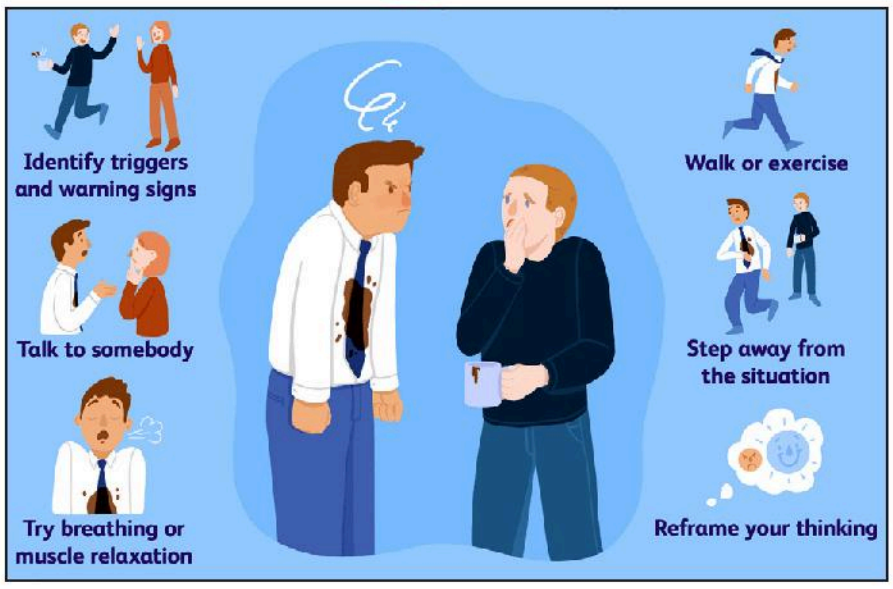
Anger Management

By Sunita Menon
Psychotherapist - Specialised in CBT & Sex Therapy



Identify triggers and warning signs
Talk to somebody
Try breathing or muscle relaxation
Walk or exercise
Step away from the situation
Reframe your thinking

Anger, unlike the other five emotions (Love, Sadness, Happiness, Fear and Shame/ Guilt), can cause immense physical and mental anguish to self and those around us. One is allowed to experience (Anger Experience) and express (Anger Expression) Anger but there is also this expectation of us to keep it in check (Anger Management) or reign it in. Because unhealthy Anger (Rage) has consequences that can result in breaking relationships/friendships, losing goodwill, damaging career/job prospects and even have us come face to face with the Law.

Every time we experience anger, it impacts us on 3 levels, namely physiological (physical changes like trembling, raised heart rate, clenched jaw or fists and tensed muscles in the neck and shoulder), cognitive (our thoughts and beliefs about the triggering person/event or situation) and behavioural (the way we display the emotion of anger on self or others). While some of us implode, others explode. So very clearly we each have our own bandwidth to tolerate annoyance and irritation and distinct ways of communicating the same. Open to us are aggressive, passive-aggressive or passive styles to communicate anger.

Obviously at this point you are wondering what healthy anger is. Healthy anger is annoyance and irritation that leads us towards resolution rather than aggression. It can be intense but not overwhelming and does not lead to loss of control and intimidation and vindictiveness. Which implies, the individual has tolerant, flexible and accepting attitudes towards the triad that includes self, the other person and the world at large or life in general.

Those with healthy anger also are more resilient and bounce back easily to normalcy. While those with unhealthy anger have a short fuse, low threshold to tolerate frustration and poor impulse control.

There is even a school of thought that believes anger is fabricated. Choices we make with regard to whom we display our anger on and how and why we convey the intensity of the anger we experience. For example: you are having an intense argument with a family member at home. Yelling voices, profanity, thumping fists et al and your boss calls. You take the call and sound as normal and formal as you can. None of the anger experienced 2 minutes ago by you is expressed or displayed at the boss. But the moment you end the call, back you go to being that enraged person picking up from where you left off with no effort. Sounds familiar?

Rage rooms are much in fashion now. Allowing for us to vent our anger in carefully curated rooms without legal consequences. Think pressure cooker. We have all been told that letting off steam is cathartic and allows for us to come back to normalcy. Punch that pillow, go for a run are some of the suggestions thrown at us to exorcise anger (with physical exertion).

But new studies tell us quite the opposite. Venting anger might not be such a good idea after all. In fact it could be counter productive. Because venting further raises our already elevated arousal levels. So it would be best to engage in activities that instead help in decreasing our high levels of arousal.

Some calming activities that help with Anger Management would be slow-flow yoga, mindfulness exercises, Progressive Muscle Relaxation techniques (PMR), diaphragmatic breathing etc.

I also encourage my clients to consciously engage their five senses: Sense of sight - as in a calm blue sky/ sea, auditory sense - as in sounds of birds chirping or the wind blowing, olfactory sense - as in perfumed candles or incense sticks, sense of touch - as in stroking our pet or simply running a feather on the soles of our feet and sense of taste - as in allowing for a piece of chocolate to quietly dissolve on our tongue and allow for the texture, temperature and taste to melt our rage. This way we don't allow thoughts and emotions to overwhelm us instead.

Anger Management also involves us processing the trigger, our beliefs about it and the emotions and behaviours it gives rise to, in us. But all of which after we first calm ourselves down. This way we choose a response rather than have a reaction. Helping us perhaps towards a resolution.

PM Modi-led Govt. has made Indian healthcare future-ready: Dr. Manjunath

Bengaluru, Apr. 12 (KMS& BCT)- Dr. C.N. Manjunath, the BJP candidate for the Bengaluru Rural Lok Sabha Constituency, highlighted several initiatives undertaken by the Narendra Modi Government at the Centre aimed at transforming the health sector.

He emphasised that under the visionary leadership of Prime Minister Modi, the Central Government has embraced a proactive approach, leading to a significant paradigm shift in the healthcare sector. Rather than solely focusing on treating illnesses, a new emphasis on health and wellness has become central to health sector governance.

"At birth, the average life expectancy has risen from 49.7 years during 1970-75 to 69.0 years in 2013-17, marking a notable increase of 19.3 years during this period. According to the same report, life expectancy at birth for males and females during 2013-17 stood at 67.8 and 70.4 years, respectively," he remarked during an interaction at the BJP Media Centre in Bengaluru recently.

Dr. Manjunath

Increased life expectancy

Common ailments among older patients include hypertension, diabetes mellitus, ischaemic heart disease, poor vision, hearing difficulties, anaemia, arthritis, falls/fractures, bowel and urinary complaints, depression, weight loss, asthma, chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, and tuberculosis.

Recognising the necessity for specialised and accessible healthcare for the elderly, the Government of India has introduced various programmes, including the National Programme for Healthcare of Elderly (NPHCE) and the Integrated Programme for Older Persons like Ayushman Bharat.

These initiatives aim to provide healthcare facilities to senior citizens aged 60 and above across primary, secondary and tertiary healthcare delivery systems, with the overarching goal of further increasing the average life expectancy of the population, Dr. Manjunath added. "The prices of stent has been slashed from Rs. 1.70 lakh to Rs. 30,000," he added.

"When Modi took over as the PM, there were only five All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS) that offer premium and unmatched services. Now, the number of AIIMS has increased to 23. He also said that, as of 30.11.2022, the Cabinet approved outlay for 16 new AIIMS with a fund of Rs. 20,944 crore. A fund of Rs.10,595 crore has been released," he added.

Ayushman Bharat, Digital Health Mission

"One of the significant healthcare initiatives of the Modi Government is the Ayushman Bharat scheme, which aims to provide health coverage to over 500 million people from economically weaker sections of society," he noted. In Karnataka, there are 1.32 crore Ayushman Bharat beneficiaries, Dr. Manjunath added.

The Modi Government launched the National Digital Health Mission (NDHM) in August 2020, which aims to create a digital health ecosystem that will provide universal health coverage, including access to health records and other healthcare services for all citizens.

"In addition to establishing new AIIMS across the country, the Government has invested significantly in improving healthcare infrastructure, including building new Medical Colleges (from 387 to 700), upgrading existing healthcare facilities and expanding the number of hospital beds," Dr. Manjunath noted. In Karnataka alone, there are 1,120 Jan Aushadhi Kendras that sell affordable medicines.

The Government took several steps to combat the pandemic, including setting up COVID-19 hospitals and increasing the number of testing facilities. It also increased the production of vaccines and could vaccinate nearly their entire population, which was a target few other countries achieved. "India managed the pandemic better than the so-called advanced countries," the renowned cardiologist noted.

'We have kept our word, seek vote without any apprehension'

Mysuru, Apr. 12 (BLU&BS)- Food and Civil Supplies Minister K.H. Muniyappa has advised the party workers to approach voters without any apprehension, as the people will respond and support the party, for the State Congress Government keeping its word by implementing pre-poll guarantees.

He was speaking after inaugurating a meeting of Dalit leaders organised by Federation of Dalit Organisations, to extend their support to Congress party in the Parliamentary elections, at a marriage hall in Hootagalli in the city on Thursday.

The then Congress led United Progressive Alliance (UPA) Government introduced National Food Safety and Security Act to see to it that nobody should suffer from hunger. The scheme was continued by the subsequent BJP Government, but Congress holds the credit of being the first Government in the country to take such a key decision, said Muniyappa.

Following the formation of Congress Government in the State, 5 kg rice was given to the BPL card holders under Anna Bhagya scheme. While the request for providing additional 5kg rice was turned down by the BJP led Central Government, practicing a step-motherly attitude towards the State Government. Instead of rice we are giving Rs. 170 per head in every household having BPL card, he added.

Congress which has taken many such pro-people decisions has walked the talk. Hence the party workers should seek votes without any inhibition and the people will also respond positively, he said.

Vani Shivaram, wife of retired IAS Officer K. Shivaram, who passed away recently said, "My husband was promised a ticket for Lok Sabha elections by BJP and he also involved in organisational activities of the party. However, the party deceived him twice without giving the ticket. The voters should teach a fitting lesson to BJP."

Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa alleged that 'BJP is out to take a political mileage by provoking people with emotional issues."

Former MLA Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah cautioned the people by stating that 'If you support BJP they will change the Constitution. If it happens, the survival of the people appears bleak."

MLA K. Harishgowda, MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah, former MP Kagalawadi Shivanna, former MLA M.K. Somashekar, former Minister Kote M Shivanna, former Mayors Narayan and Purushotham and others were present.

Support Congress to implement Constitutional ethos: Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa

Mysuru, Apr. 12 (PM&BS)- Social Welfare and Mysuru District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa has given a clarion call to the voters to support Congress party that is committed to the Constitution, in the Lok Sabha elections, for improving the livelihood, initiate development works and building egalitarian society.

He was addressing a gathering of party workers, backward classes and most backward classes leaders of Mysuru-Kodagu and Chamarajanagar (SC Reserve) Lok Sabha Constituencies, at a meeting organised by Karnataka State Most Backward Classes Awareness Forum, at Indira Gandhi Congress Bhavan in the city on Thursday.

"The State Congress Government led by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah is empowering women with the implementation of Guarantee Schemes. The Constitution envisages freedom of expression, self-respect and equal opportunities to all the citizens. To enjoy these privileges in toto, voters should rally behind Congress, while BJP has no regards for the Constitution," said Dr. Mahadevappa.

Earlier, Chamaraja MLA K. Harishgowda said, "Prior to the Assembly elections, BJP and JD(S) were sceptical about the implementation of five Guarantees by Congress party. But our Government has successfully implemented the schemes. We should work towards ensuring the victory of M. Lakshmana, the party candidate in the LS elections from Mysuru-Kodagu."

MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda appealed for the victory of Lakshmana in Mysuru-Kodagu and Sunil Bose in Chamarajanagar (SC Reserve) Constituency.

Former MLA M.K. Somashekar also addressed the gathering.

WORD OF THE DAY

Fatuous

Pronunciation: FATCH-oo-us (Adjective)

Meaning: To describe something, such as an idea or remark, as fatuous is to say that it is foolish or silly rather than sensible or logical.

Origin: "I am two fools, I know, / For loving, and for saying so / In whining Poetry," wrote John Donne, simultaneously confessing to both infatuation and fatuousness. As any love-struck fool can attest, infatuation can make buffoons of the best of us, and so it is reasonable that the words fatuous and infatuation share the same Latin root, fatuus, meaning "foolish." Both terms have been part of English since the 17th century, though infatuation followed the earlier verb infatuate, a fatuus descendant that once meant "to make foolish" but that now usually means "to inspire with a foolish love or admiration."

Example: "... when I was first admitted to the emergency room at Swedish's hospital in Edmonds, a doctor asked me whether I was right- or left-handed, and when I said left, he said, 'That's lucky'—a remark I took to be verging on the fatuous. But since then I've read that a considerable portion of left-handed people ... have their verbal and cognitive facilities located in the right hemisphere of the brain, which would explain my relative ease in talking, thinking, and remembering, despite my hemiplegia ..." — Jonathan Raban, Father and Son: A Memoir, 2023

THE ODD WORD

Cloying

Disgusting or distasteful by reason of excess.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Queer the pitch

Meaning: You use the phrase 'Queer the pitch' to explain the act of ruining, interfering with, or even completely spoiling something, usually related to business.

Origin: Sometime around 1812, people started to use the term "queer" as a synonym for "ruin." An example can be found in statements like "the milk's gone queer," which describes spoilt milk. It's not exactly clear when the term "Queer the pitch" came into use as a phrase.

Example: "Jack was just getting into his call to action when someone in the audience started shouting in an attempt to queer the pitch."
